ONCE WAS COUNTY CLERK

Served for Three Months as Justice of Peace; Came to Oklahoma From Kansas

B. F. Ingraham, attorney, member of the law firm of Ingraham & Bickling, has announced he will be a democratic candidate for the mayoral nomination this spring.

Ingraham was born in Farrington, Kan., near Port Scott, July 13, 1874.
After attending the common schools he entered the Kansas state normal college at Port Scott. Later he taught school, reading law during his spare time. On moving to Oklahoma he engaged in the lumber and saw business, and in 1906 located in Tulsa.

He was court clerk of Tulsa county for six years. Afterward he served three months as a justice of the peace, resigning this position to engage in the practice of law. He was a candidate for the nomination for mayor on the democratic ticket in 1919.

WHY HE WANTS JOB.

He stated yesterday he has three reasons for wanting to be mayor of Tulsa—to receive the honor, to earn the salary and to fulfill the obligations imposed on this office.

Ingraham's platform includes personal responsibility for acts of the chief of police, strict compliance with contracts by contractors, supervision of water department contracts by the board of commissioners, advocating a rotary fund with which to pay paving and sewer bonds in cash, and attention to the transportation situation.

JOHN RAINY ANNOUNCES.

John Rainey also became an active candidate Friday when he announced he will run for commissioner. It is understood he wants the water commissioners'hip. Rainey has lived in Tulsa about seven years.
He is a charter member of the Oklahoma chapter of the National Association of Stationary Engineers.

Mrs. Lillan D. Lindsey stated yesterday she will not seek the mayoral nomination on the republican ticket, but instead will be a candidate for commissioner. She would, if nominated and elected, prefer to be commissioner of finance and revenue. Mrs. Lindsey is a pioneer in Oklahoma and Tulsa. She came here as a teacher among the Indians. Her influence has been felt throughout Tulsa's history because of her active efforts toward civic betterment.

GAS HIKE AT GARBER

Pay 75 Cents a Thousand for Gas Company Service.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 24.—Rethe Garber Gas and Fuel company was directed in an order issued last today by the state corporation compulsive March 1.

For the first 2,000 cubic feet of gas used by each consumer the company is authorized to charge 75 cents for each 1,000 cubic feet. For the next 20,000 the rate will be 60 cents, for the second 100,000 cubic feet, 50 cents, and for all over 200, 000 cubic feet the rate will be 35 cents.

The gas company had been selling the gas at a flat rate of 50 cents for each 1,000 cubic feet, buying at the city gate at 25 cents, according to testimony presented to the commissioner. This rate had been in effect since May 15, 1921, before which time it had been charging 75 cents while buying gas at 10 cents. The company claimed a financial loss during the year 1921.

Senate Will Decide Treaty's Fate and Fate of Reserva-

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—A compromise reservation to the 4-power Pacific treaty was agreed upon today by President Harding and Senator Brandegee of Connecticut, republican "irreconcilable" member of the senate foreign relations committee.

The new reservation intended as a substitute for the one originally offered by Brandegee to which President Harding objected, was worked out at conference held between the president and the senator at the white house prior to another meeting of the senate foreign rela-

The new reservation, as made public following its submission to the committee by Brandegee, after his conference with the presi-

Public Funeral for Fliers Who Died in Fall of Roma

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Feb. 24.— An unnamed soldier from among the dead in the disaster to the airship was selected as representative of all those who gave their lives in the fatal flight, for a public funeral which was held here today.

Resting in a plain casket under the folds of the flag on a grassy prominence in the center of a huge hollow square, he received for himself and the 33 others who died in the disaster, a last farewell from his comrades and from among others whom he had lived.

It had been planned for Newport News and other cities near Langley field to do honor at a public funeral for all the men who died when the great army airship Roma was destroyed last Tuesday, but because many of the bodies, destined for homes in widely separated parts of the country, had been sent from the city earlier, it was arranged for one body to represent all the services. So a lone soldier without a name was chosen from those remaining, that all might be honored.

Moving in funeral step to the strains of the Dead March from Muss, played by a band from Langley field, the funeral procession entered the square, which had been roped off on the grassy grounds overlooking the James river. (Atherover about the square were thousands. As the body was laid on its natural catafalque, a squad of virginia delivered a eulogy.

Then a crisp order rang out and rifles of a Langley field firing squad clicked their cartridges into place.
Three sharp volleys cracked and the chose died. Long's notes mounted the breeze with the soldier's last farewell.

Now the big crowd of the general election and the primaries. The books will be open until the night of March 11.

There still be few new registrations made, Boudie believes, but the transfers will be numerous, as all transfers made to date are void, due to the fact that no record has been kept. This means that everyone holding a transfer will have to go to the precinct registrar and have it filed properly.

A voter, once registered, does not have to register for every election, Boudie said. All legal registrations to date are good, even if made two or three years ago. But many of those who have registered more than once are in a box, as Boudie explained matters, because all duplications are void, unless the original registration was canceled by the registrar in the precinct in which the first registration was made.

All registrations made by the county registrar are void, Boudie says, because the county registrar is not authorized to register voters.
However, this is not expected to cause much confusion as not many voters in this county have been registered by the county officials. A time the books are opened, provided that he has first canceled the original registration, but no change in politics is permissible, unless made 90 days before election day.
This means that those re-registering for the primaries cannot change party.

A complete ledger file of all registrations in this county is practically completed and will be fully completed by the time the registration books open, according to Boudie. Every precinct registrar will be provided with a copy of the "ledger" and must keep it up to date. In a few cases, the original registration books were lost and no record could be made. Where this is the case, those holding receipts from the lost books will be placed on the record when they vote.

Failed to Take Package.
Detectives had placed packages in each place where the money demanded was supposed to be deposited, but no one ever appeared, and the first "lead" the police received was through Mr. White's butler, one Stevens, whom the police said Long declared he knew well. A few days ago it was said Long went to see Stevens at the White home and at the door was stopped by four men who, he said, told him that he had better not enter, as there was danger.

He is said to have told Stevens this when he got inside, on the theory, the police believe, that the money would impress upon him the seriousness of the letters Mr. White had received.

Certain that they had located their money, detectives went to Long's home today and took him into custody.
He had not been at work for three days. The police said tonight that none of those who had received the letters had shown a disposition to press the case against Long and had unless they do no complaint would be lodged against Long.

FREED AFTER CONFESSION

Allowed to Return to Sick Wife and Children to Await Action by Officers

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—George E. Long, a clerk in the bureau of insular affairs of the war department since 1904, confessed today, according to the police to the authorship of blackhand letters recently received by Henry White, former ambassador to France, and by several society women prominent in Washington. The letters demanded large sums of money and threatened death if the sums were not forthcoming.

Long was arrested after department of justice agents are said to have traced letters to him by a peculiarity in the hand writing and a water mark used in war department stationery. He made his alleged confession after more than two hours of questioning at police headquarters by Inspector Grant, but was then permitted to return to his home where his wife is seriously ill. Long is 49 years of age and has three children.

No Charge Preferred.
No charge was preferred against him as Inspector Grant said "We know we can get him when we want him, and we thought it better to let him go home and care for his wife, who is very ill, and his three children."

Besides Mr. White, according to police, the threatening letters were received by Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, recent black and white, of Colorado; Mrs. Christian Haug, widow of the former Norwegian minister, and Mrs. Mary Scott Townsend.

According to the police, Long served as valet to Maj. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards when he was chief of the insular bureau and had traveled around the world with his employer.

Makes a Confession.
In his confession, Inspector Grant stated that Long said:

"I don't know why I wrote the letters. I may have gotten my idea from reading of the Gatti case (a recent black and white case) but I was anxious to see the children of the city provided for, and I thought these rich children might help."

He declared, however, the inspector added, that he never went to the places where he had delivered, and money to be delivered, and "would not have touched it." One of the first things Long did after confessing, it was said, was to telephone his wife and ask her to notify General Edwards, who is now stationed in Boston. Although the case only came to light yesterday, operatives of the department of justice, under Chief William J. Burns, and the local detective force under Inspector Grant have been working on it for several weeks.

Failed to Take Package.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 24.—Completion of the investigation being conducted into the transactions of the defunct Bank of Commerce of Okmulgee is expected soon, according to a statement made today by Fred Parkinson, state bank inspector and examiner, upon his return from Okmulgee. The report of the investigation will be withheld, however, he said, until the grand jury, empaneled there recently, finishes its work.

Parkinson returned to the capital today to attend to routine business of his office for a few days. He will go back to Okmulgee later, he said, although the actual work of the investigation is being carried on by two assistants.

Sales Tax Modeled After Canadian System Proposed to Congress

TENTATIVELY APPROVED

Proposition Will Be Laid Before Full Republican Membership for Decision

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—A sales tax plan designed to raise the money necessary for the soldier bonus was laid before the full republican membership of the house ways and means committee by the tax subcommittee which has been wrestling with the problem for some days.

Based on Canadian System.
The plan is based on the Canadian manufacturers' tax system, with specific commodities named and it is understood the rate of tax is to be about 1 per cent.

The plan has been only "tentatively agreed to," and some members of the subcommittee received the right to oppose it. It was agreed, however, to lay the plan before the full republican membership of the ways and means committee to see if a majority could be secured for its support.

Chairman Fordney expressed the opinion that if an agreement could not be reached in the full committee, the subcommittee would go back to its job and try to evolve something else.

General Tax Rejected.
Other members of the committee however, asserted that there was "chaos in the committee" and that it was impossible to get an agreement on any form of taxation to provide funds for the bonus.

The general sales tax was rejected by the subcommittee.
While the general sales tax probably will be further considered by subcommittee, it is understood the manufacturers' sales tax, similar to the tax plan now in effect in Canada, will be taken up again when the committee meets next week.

Members of the subcommittee were opposed to the general sales tax because of the large number of exceptions that would be necessary in order to keep it from becoming burdensome.
